Encourage your students and their families to come to the Dr. Seuss Literacy Fair. Children ages 4-10, their families, and classrooms will enjoy Dr. Seuss-themed literacy activities to help them read better and love reading together.

Each child will receive a FREE BOOK to take home. Stop by Burton Barr Central Library's Children's Place and join in the fun!

Presented by Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women

Featured eResource: Hoopla

If you haven't already heard of Hoopla, then you're in for a treat. Hoopla is one of our most popular eResources for so many reasons – its ease of use, no waiting lists for items, and its variety and selection. Hoopla allows you to check out full-length movies, digital music, eBooks, eAudiobooks, comics and television shows. Unlike other eResources, there are no waiting lists! Some examples of great classroom titles you can check out right now are: an expansive variety of PBS films; Neil deGrasse Tyson's The Inexplicable Universe, a TV series with half-hour episodes about the incredible world of physics; The Flying Machine Book, featuring 35 easy-to-build and fun-to-fly contraptions that can be used indoors or out; Science is Simple, an eBook with over 250 science activities for preschoolers; and Black History: Leaders, a children's, non-fiction graphic novel about our country's black leaders.

Featured Print Resource:

The Book with No Pictures by B.J. Novak

The Book with No Pictures by B.J. Novak might sound boring and serious, but once you open up the pages of this read-aloud with your students, you'll think differently. A fun and hilarious book geared to make students laugh hysterically and make grownups shake their heads (in a good way!), this crowd-pleaser is a guaranteed way to get your kids excited about reading with their family. They'll want to borrow the book and convince any grownup they know to read it to them!
