PHOENIX PUBLIC LIBRARY EXHIBITS “LOVE BOMB” APRIL 16 – JUNE 11

Burton Barr Central Library will host an exhibition of work by Don Clouse, titled “Love Bomb,” April 16 – June 11, 2014 at the library’s @Central Gallery, 1221 N. Central Ave. An opening reception with the artist will be held 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. Friday, May 2. Rich Bailey will provide musical entertainment. The reception is sponsored by Friends of the Phoenix Public Library.

Clouse’s work has been influenced by the United States invasion of Iraq and recent violent events. He uses acrylic and mixed media to create images that reflect his thoughts and feelings about war machines that threaten life on the planet. (Click here for high resolution images.)

Clouse’s art has been shown in numerous juried art exhibitions in Phoenix and Tucson. It has also been displayed at Arizona State University’s Gammage Auditorium and the Arizona State Capitol.
