Summer Programs
@ Cholla Library | 10050 Metro Parkway E.

TEENS

Solar Robot
Learn how to make a moving robot using a solar panel and a motor.
2–3 p.m. Wednesday, July 10

ADULTS

Summer Yoga with the Music of the Tibetan Bowl
Enjoy a slow flowing class, with asana (yoga poses), pranayama (breathwork), and quiet savasana, all with the beautiful music of the Tibetan singing bowl. All levels welcome.
2–3 p.m. Wednesday, July 17

KIDS

2–3 p.m. Wednesdays, June 5–July 24 (No program on July 3.)

June 5 Space Party
Blast off into Summer Reading with out-of-this-world crafts and activities!

June 12 Fairytale Fun
Join costumed characters – Anna and Elsa — for stories, singing, dancing and photo ops.

June 19 Taiko Drumming
Make powerful music with the ancient Japanese art of Taiko. Join Eileen Morgan and learn how to carry a beat.

June 26 Magic Show
Eric Giliam's professional Las Vegas style stage show is dazzling. His illusions will leave you breathless.

July 10 Junkbots
Make a moving robot out of recyclable materials.

July 17 Reptile Fun
Snakes in the library! Learn about reptiles and meet some slinky species up close.

July 24 Arizona Rick
Enjoy delightful storytelling with balloon twisting extraordinaire Arizona Rick! Arizona Rick uses fantastical balloon creations and volunteers from the audience to tell stories, play games, and do a bit of magic.

For more information, visit phoenixpubliclibrary.org or call 602-262-4636 (for TTY dial 7-1-1).

Supported by