

Free ACT Prep Resources

Prepare for your exam with these steps: (1) identify areas of improvement by taking a diagnostic exam, (2) review these topics with content lessons, (3) reinforce your knowledge with practice questions, and (4) simulate test day by taking full-length practice exams until you are satisfied with your score and ready to officially take the ACT. The following FREE ACT prep websites provide an array of resources to aid your studying in these areas:

1. ACT.org ●●
  - Practice
  - Full-length practice exam
  - Free classes or events with Kaplan
  - Most important resource, created by the test makers themselves
2. Kaplan ●●
  - Practice
  - Half-length practice exam
  - Question of the day
  - Free classes or events with ACT
  - Second most important resource, created in partnership with the ACT test makers
3. Varsity Tutors ●●●
  - Content lessons
  - Full-length practice tests
  - Flashcards
  - Question of the day
4. Princeton Review ●●●
  - Prep trial for 14 days with content and practice
  - Full-length practice exam
- 5A. Magoosh E-Book ●●●
  - Youtube Channel with content lessons
  - Practice
  - Testing strategies
- 5B. Magoosh Full-length Practice Exam
6. Union Test Prep ●
  - Content lessons
  - Flashcards
  - Study guides
7. Erik The Red Tutoring ●
  - ACT/SAT math practice
  - ACT/SAT math study guides with formulas
8. Brightstorm ●●
  - Content lessons with videos
  - Practice
  - Testing strategies
9. Olive Book ●●●
  - Content lessons with videos
  - Practice
  - Full-length practice exams
  - Testing strategies
10. Peterson's ACT Prep* ●●●●
  - Diagnostic exam
  - Content lessons
  - Practice
  - Full-length practice exams
  - Testing strategies
  - E-Book

*need library card for access; getting a library card is free of charge

Last Revised: 07/27/2023

Free SAT Prep Resources

Prepare for your exam with these steps: (1) identify areas of improvement by taking a diagnostic exam, (2) review these topics with content lessons, (3) reinforce your knowledge with practice questions, and (4) simulate test day by taking full-length practice exams until you are satisfied with your score and ready to officially take the SAT. The following FREE SAT prep websites provide an array of resources to aid your studying in these areas:

1. College Board ●

- SAT full-length practice exams
- Most important resource, created by the test makers themselves

2. Khan Academy ●●

- Content lessons with videos
- Practice
- Tips and strategies
- Second most important resource, created in partnership with the College Board

3. Kaplan ●●●

- Prep trial for 14 days with content and practice
- Full-length practice exams
- Question of the day

4. Princeton Review ●

- Full-length practice exams

5A. Magoosh E-Book ●●●

- Youtube Channel with content lessons
- Practice via flashcards
- Question of the day

5B. Magoosh Diagnostic Exam

6. Varsity Tutors ●●

- Content lessons
- Practice via flashcards
- Practice exams by section
- Question of the day

7. Erik The Red Tutoring ●

- ACT/SAT math practice
- ACT/SAT math study guides with formulas

8. TestPrepReview ●

- Practice for Math, Reading, and Writing
- Vocabulary lists

9. TestPrepPractice ●

- Practice for Reading, Grammar, and Math

10. Test Geek ●●

- Content strategies with videos
- Practice
- Tips and strategies

Last Revised: 07/27/2023