Celebrate Black Voices
2026 Virtual Art Exhibit

Participate in Phoenix Public Library's annual virtual art exhibit:
Celebrate Black Voices!

Young artists!

We invite you to draw/paint/otherwise depict an individual or historical event featuring Black history or culture. Choose someone or something you find important, inspirational, or fascinating! It can be of a subject you learned in school, read in a book or know from everyday life. Look for interesting and unique subjects to make your artwork stand out. Be creative! Make it your own!

Selected entries will be displayed in a virtual art gallery on Phoenix Public Library's website February to October 2026 and featured on social media during Black History Month.

The details:

- Artists in grades K-12 are invited to depict an important person or event celebrating the Black experience in America.

- Each artist may enter one (1) drawing.

- Illustrations can be in any medium: crayon, marker, colored pencil, paint, collage, etc.

- Artwork should be no larger than 11" x 17" on white paper. No lined or colored paper.

- Each submission must be accompanied by a submission form (on the back).

- Entries may be submitted in person at any Phoenix Public Library location or by email to socialmedialibrary@phoenix.gov.

Library location information and printable submission forms are available at phoenixpubliclibrary.org/kids.

Entry deadline is 5 p.m. on Friday, January 9, 2026.
