

Seed Library

Growing Instructions

Desert Colors Wildflower Mix

In this mix are non-Sonoran old-time garden regulars that are non-invasive.

Seeds may be planted any time of year, as different species in the mix may germinate in any season in the event of a substantial rainfall. Most of these species' bloom from late Winter through Spring, so that plantings from late September through February will provide the best results.

NATIVES:

Bahia, Desert Bluebells, Desert Marigold, Desert Senna, Dyssodia, Mexican Gold Poppy, Fendler Bladderpod, Gordon's Bladderpod, Desert Lupine, Parry's Penstemon, Prairie Coneflower, Pygmy Aster, Silverbells, Thimblehead, Paperflower, Colored Globemallow, Indian Blanketflower, Wild Sunflower.

EXOTICS:

California Poppy, Scarlet Flax, Coreopsis, Cosmos, Shirley Poppy, Arroyo Lupine, Five-spot, Baby Snapdragons, Lemon Beebalm, Showy Evening Primrose.

For more information about Seed Library, visit phoenixpubliclibrary.org or call 602-262-4636 (for TTY dial 7-1-1).